A POETICAL EPISTLE TO THE AUTHOR
By an American Gentleman.

[In introducing this celebrated work to the Gentlemen and Ladies of America, I have endeavored to give it a dreſs proportioned to its diſtinguiſhed merit, and to the taſte of thoſe for whoſe amuſement and delight it is intended. No expence has been ſpared in the publication; and I flatter myſelf that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever publiſhed in America —— This edition has an advantage over ſome former ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and, it has an advantage over every other edition, in the Poetical Epiſtle, which is prefixed to it, and which muſt be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the taſte to admire, the juſtice to applaud, and the talents to rival the Geniuſes of other nations.

THE STRANGE CATTLE:

A FABLE.

"Thus did the Trojan wooden horſe
"Conceal a fatal armed force:
"No ſooner brought within the walls,
"But Illum's loſt, and Priam falls."

SWIFT.

SOME cattle once from a green paſture,
Fenc'd round with care by its rich maſter,
Broke out, tho' modern hiſtories teach ye,
They were drove off for being breachy.

On t'other ſide of a great lake
There lay another large eſtate,
The joint concern of many maſters,
Who were not careful of their paſtures,
Their grounds brought yearly ſo much crop,
To eat it up they wanted ſtock.
Of this rich land the herd had heard,
Then quickly thro' the lake they ſteer'd
And ſoon this black breed, emigrant,
Were lowing on the fartheſt bank.

They found the country much the ſame
As had been told them by Dame Fame;
A fine, extenſive, woody common,
Where they at will might graze or roam on.
The eaſy maſters' meadow ground
Under a wooden fence they found,
Both ſlight and low, not as at home,
A ſolid wall of lime and ſtone,
With pikes of iron, arm'd at top,
Poor cattle's liberty to ſtop.
Here they could break the fence at pleaſure,
And feed and chew their cud at leiſure,
Friſk with the natives helter-ſkelter,
Nor dread a dog, nor trap, nor halter.

Thus things went on, till on a day,
The owners did their ſtock ſurvey,
And, ſeeing they were much encreas'd,
Began to think it might be beſt
To have the new come cattle broke
A little to the plough and yoke,
That they might do th' eſtate ſome good
For ſummer's graſs and winter's food.

At this the ſtranger-herd grew furious,
The ſteers bawl'd out, "Dear Sirs, tis curious
"That we ſhould ſwim a great big lake
"To be again tied by the neck!
"Is what we've heard but idle chatting,
"That we'd do nothing here but fatten;
"All ſummer thro' rich paſture ſtray,
"And all the winter ſtand at hay?
"To talk to us of plough and cart
"Is tyranny, we do declar't.
"You muſt excuſe us in this matter,
"We hope we know our rights ſome better."

Thus ſpake the ſteers. The bulls did mutter all,
Then bellow'd forth in accents guttural:
"Arrah, by J——s! this won't do,
"To tie us to the cart and plough,
"And make us work t'ye for our meat,
"What came we here for but to eat!
"'Tis damn'd uncivil to a ſtranger,
"Who ſhould be fed at rack and manger,
"And kept ſo ſleek, ſo plump and fat,
"To clap a cart upon his back.
"Our necks your yokes will never hang on,
"We'll rather, Honeys! drag French cannon.
"The French are gentlemen ſo civil,
"They bow themſelves down to our level.
"They ſay, tis better far for man,
"To live as we do—as he can,
"And when he ſees a ſweet bite, ſnatch it,
"No matter how, ſo he can catch it;
"For, when they die, tis all the ſame
"With bulls and ſteers, and calves and men.
"Then haul your carts yourſelves, ſweet jewels!
"Though we're but cattle, we're no fools.
"When we ſubmit, the d——l fetch us,
"Good luck t'ye, neighbors! when you catch us."

This ſaid, away they ran, loud lowing
"Sweet liberty! no cart! no plowing!"
The other's followed, every head,
Then thus the gentle maſters ſaid:

"We find we have done no prudent thing,
"By taking theſe ſtrange cattle in.
"They told us they had left the claws
"Of iron oppreſſion and ſtern laws;
"And they've protected been, and fed,
"Juſt like our own, no difference made;
"Then gratitude and juſtice ſay,
"That they ſhould yield to our mild ſway;
"But as to force by prick and whip,
"'Tis not the way we order keep.
"To bring theſe cattle to their ſenſes
"We muſt put up our broken fences,
"And make them ſtrong, that this wild tribe
"Mayn't get again to the inſide.
"They may live on our woody waſte,
"In any way that they think beſt,
"So that they their vicious tricks give o'er,
"If not we'll ſend them from our ſhore:
"But no more ſhall they graze our paſtures
"(For they muſt know that we are maſters)
"Nor eat our corn, nor taſte our hay,
"Till they learn better to obey;
"And get by heart this moral leſſon,
"That juſt command is no oppreſſion,
"That plenty, peace and ſafe protection
"Can only come from due ſubjection,
"And order, law and ſettled plan,
"Are good for beaſt as well as man."

From the Commercial Gazette.

BOSTON June 3.

From the Foreign articles it will be ſeen, that the French have been completely diſcomfited on the Rhine, and in Italy, and experienced in the rapidly ſucceſſive and ſharp conteſts, ſuch a ſeries of adverſe fortune, as to reduce them to the neceſſity of covering, if poſſible, their own frontiers, and act upon the defenſive, during the remainder of the campaign; that their loſs in killed, wounded, and in priſoners, in ſtores, and in ammunition, is immenſe; that 20,000 Frenchmen were computed to have been killed and wounded; that in one gallant manœuvre, the Auſtrian Gen. Storrey, had made himſelf maſter of a fine train of artillery, conſiſting of 80 pieces of cannon; that through the intereſts of the courts of St. James and Peterſburg, the King of Pruſſia was to take the field with 100,000 men, to act, in concert againſt France; that the wretched Hollanders, in the abſence of a great part of their taſk maſters, had riſen, and maſſacred the remander; wearied with French liberty, they had ſeized the firſt oppurtunity to throw themſelves once more under the yoke of their ancient Prince, convinced from fatal experience, that any burthen is leſs galling and oppreſſive than what they have endured ſince France made them a free people; that the conſcriptions were poorly ſupplied, inſomuch, that an order was iſſued, requiring their march within 24 hours under pain of being treated as deſerters. Theſe are the recent events of Europe. In Egypt, as was anticipated, the French troops, und Buonaparte, deſtitute of proviſions and wines, are melting away before the peſtilential fevers of that ſickly climate.

Since the receipt of the above important advices, Rotterdam papers have been received here as late as April 23, authenticating the great events, related in the London prints. Under the head of Inſpruck, April 9, it is ſtated, that Gen. Kray fought and totally defeated the Republican army, tho' with conſiderable loſs—that the French loſt 2500 killed and 200 horſes, 2000 wounded, 5550 priſoners, including 160 officers, a large park of artillery, 30 ammunition waggons, and 11 ſtandards. Gen. Kray afterwards fixed his head quarters at Villa Franca.

ARTILLERY ELECTION

Agreeably to the ancient charter of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, the annual election of Officers was held on Monday laſt. The company paraded at the uſual hour; and at noon eſcorted the Preſident of the United States, his honor the Lieutenant Governor, the Members of Council, and a number of other gentlemen, to the Old Brick Meting Houſe; where a Sermon, which met the warmeſt approbation of a crouded and very reſpectable aſſembly, was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Emerſon, of Harvard, from Pſalms CXLIX, 6, "Let the high praiſes of God be in their mouth, and a two edged ſword in their hand." After divine ſervice, the company eſcorted to Faneuil-Hall, the dignified characters above-mentioned, together with ſuch members of Congreſs as were in town, the preſident and members of the ſenate, the ſpeaker and members of the houſe of repreſentatives, the judges of the Supreme Judicial and Diſtrict Courts, the Rev. Clergy, with a great number of civil and military officers, and other public characters. The elegant appearance of the hall afforded pleaſure to the eye, and a ſumptuous dinner gave ſolid ſatisfaction to the numerous and reſpectable gueſts. A number of patriotic toaſts were given on the occaſion, which want of room obliges us to omit.

After dinner the company marched into the Common, where they elected their officers, viz. Robert Gardner Captain; Lemuel Gardner Lieutenant; and Thomas Sumner Enſign; Mr. William Walter Clerk; Gen. John Winſlow, Treaſurer; Meſſrs. Preſcott, Phips, Coates and Clements, Sergeants.

The Preſident of the United States, in the forenoon, was eſcorted into town, and, in the afternoon, from town to his ſeat in Quincy, by the Boſton Cavalry, commanded by Capt. G. SHAW,

Reſpectfully informs the public, he has received from

ROBERT JOHNSTON,

Apothecary, No. 20, Green ſtreet, Soho, London, a freſh and very conſiderable ſupply of his highly eſteemed Medicine.

AWARE of the depredations made on every public medicine of eſtabliſhed repute and extenſive ſale, R. Johnſton, obtained the King of England's Patent for his invention, not "to recommend" but "to diſtinguiſh," Whitehead's Eſſence of Muſtard from

SPURIOUS IMITATIONS.

"Five years have now elapſed ſince Mr. Johnſton firſt made known to the world this very extraordinary medicine; during this ſhort period, its efficacy has been ſo clearly demonſtrated that its ſale has far exceeded any former example; comparitively there are few families in England or the United States which have not either heard of or experienced its beneficial effects and with heartfelt ſatisfaction he had the happineſs to declare Whitehead's Eſſence of Muſtard has cured more perſons afflicted with Rheumatiſms, Gout, Lumbago, Palſy, Complaints of the Stomach and other Painful Maladies.

Than all the Medicines ever before made public, indeed, the inſtances of its efficacy and letters of acknowledgment from "the moſt reſpectable characters" are ſo numerous that a large volume could not poſſibly contain them, it has alſo obtained the approbation of the moſt eminent men of the faculty and is honoured by the uſe and recommendation of the firſt families in England, Ireland and America.

A COUNTERFEIT.

R. JOHNSTON has reaſon to believe a large quantity under the name of "Improved Eſſence of Muſtard," as well as many others has been ſhipped for America, and conſiders it his duty to prevent impoſition and diſappointment.

He therefore requeſts the afflicted to be particular in the purchaſe of his bottles, boxes, labels, and bill of directions which are cloſely copied, and words "by royal authority," artfully ſubſtituted for the words "by the king's patent" which may elude common obſervation.

The Genuine is diſtinguiſhed by the ſignature of R. Johnſton, in his own hand writing on each label, and as an additional ſecurity is further ſigned on the outſide wrapper by his only agent for the United States, G. SHAW, No 129 Cheſnut ſtreet, Philadelphia, by whom it is ſold wholeſale and retail, in pills and in a fluid ſtate at one dollar each, box or bottle.

FOR CHILBLAINS, SPRAINS AND BRUISES,

It is a certain and effectual remedy, ſeldom requiring more than three or four applications.

To the candid and liberal of the FACULTY, R. Johnſton reſpectfully ſubmits the following obſervations. The Fluid Eſſence of Muſtard, is an embrocation worthy their particular attention, it differs in its nature from all others, and is out of the beaten tract of general practice—It is an active ſtimulant, eaſily controuled; may be either increaſed or diminiſhed in its ſtrength by the different methods of uſe, it is both elegant and convenient and is frequently found in the extemporaneous preſcriptions of their bretheren in England.

The above Genuine Medicine, as well as many others of the firſt celibrity may be had by appointment of G. Shaw, of Mr. G. Baily, Wilmington, Dr. Barrill, Maiden Lane, New-York, Meſſrs. Bailey and Walker, Charleſton, William Black, Salem, (N. J.) Charles Hunitch, Lancaſter, A. C. Jorden, Norfolk, John Roberts, do. David Keen, Sweet Springs, Virginia, R. Lee, Baltimore, I. & J. Mantz, Fredericktown, Maryland, G. W. Mancius, Albany, Dr. Vanſolingen, New-York, Meſſrs. Titford & Son, do. Meſſrs. Roſs & Douglas, Pittſburg, John Webſter, Wilmington, James Wilſon, do. Richard Winter & Co. Savannah, and in every principal town in the United States.

N.B. The public are deſired to enquire for Whitehead's Eſſence of Muſtard, all others being a baſe and ſpurious imitation.

GEO. SHAW.

129, Cheſnut-ſtreet, where Venders may be ſupplied.

"Caution againſt Counterfeits."

Agents are appointed by G. Shaw in every principal town of the United States, and there is no certainty of purchaſing the Genuine Eſſence of Muſtard in any part of America, unleſs it is ſigned on the outſide wrapper by G. Shaw, No. 129, Cheſnut ſtreet, Philadelphia, where ſhopkeepers are ſupplied and a liberal diſcount allowed them.

FURTHER

Late Foreign Articles

VIA PORTLAND.

Calcutta, Nov. 19

This day intelligence has been received from Capt Kirkpatrick, the British Resident at the Court of his Highness the Nizam, that the exchange of the ratifications of a new Subsidiary Treaty between the Hon. the East India Company and his Highness, took place in the fortress of Golcondah, on the 29th of October; and that His Highness the Nizam had been pleased to announce the event by a salute from that fortress.

Nov. 12.

The following authentic Particulars, relative to the surrender of the Officers in the corps lately commanded by Monsieur Piron, may be implicitly relied on:—

"A mutiny of a serious tendency had shewn itself for some time past among the French corps in the service of his Highness the Nizam, and at length had risen to such a head, that the ringleaders had seized and confined their Commander Mr. Piron, and the whole of the European officers attached to the corps under his command.

"Monsieur Piron, however with some subordinate officers, after having remained in confinement for several days, effected his escape to Col. Roberts who was encamped on a neighbouring territory.

"Being advised by these means, on authority not to be doubted, of the confusion which prevailed amongst the French corps, Colonel Roberts sought to take advantage of it. He made a seasonable application to the Nizam's Ministers for a reinforcement of Cavalry, which was complied with on the instant; and, afterwards by a judicious disposition of the joint forces under his command he obliged the mutineers to deliver up the officers within their power.

"The whole arrangement was made without a shot being fired.

"About 200 French Officers were rendered up to our detachments; and the whole of the corps lately commanded by Raymond, amounting to about thirteen or fourteen thousand men, gave up their arms without resistance.

"The French interest, which was lately so prevalent at Hydrabad, and which might have been attended with the most injurious consequence to the British possessions, is, by this happy and well timed arrangement, completely annihilated"

Dublin, April 9.

Sunday last 36 prisoners from the New Prison, and a number from the Provost and other places of confinement, amounting to upwards of 300, were put on board three vessels, in order to be conveyed to the dominions of his Prussian Majesty.

A Prussian officer has arrived at Duncannon fort to take them in charge; the stipulation is that they shall never return to Ireland. Their pay as Prussian soldiers, will be 2½ per day.

Milan, March 27.

A conspiracy is said to have been discovered at Venice; at least, several of the ci-devant Members of the Democratic Government have been arrested.

The Cisalpine Directory have followed the example of the Swiss, and declared war against the Emperor of Germany. In this declaration they complain of the conduct of the Imperial Court towards their Envoy, Mareschalli, at Vienna, as contrary to the faith of treaties. Similar manifestoes are preparing at Genoa and Rome.

Triest, March 29.

A Turkish ship from Alexandria, which sailed by permission of the English, has arrived here, having a number of French Officers, &c. cloathed in Turkish habits; but as some suspicion arose in the mind of our Commissioner of Police, he has had them all arrested—since which it has been reported, that Buonaparte is among these fugitives!

PROCLAMATION.

The Ministry of Sublime Porte to the Generals, Officers and Soldiers of the French Army in Egypt.

"The French Directory, forgetful of the rights of nations, has deceived you, surprised your good faith, and in contempt of the laws of war, sent you to Egypt, a country subject to the dominion of the sublime Porte, under pretence that that power itself had consented to the invasion of its own territory. Can you entertain any doubts but that the only object of the Directory in sending you to a remote country was to banish you from France, and to plunge you into an abyss of dangers? If completely ignorant of the truth, you have invaded the territory of Egypt, and are made the instruments to violate treaties of the most solemn kind, must you not attribute this to the perfidy of your Directors? Egypt must however be freed from so iniquitous an Invasion, and vast armies are now in march, and the sea is covered with formidable squadrons for the attainment of that object.—Those among you, of whatever rank they may be, who wish to extricate themselves from the imminent peril to which they are exposed, are called upon to signify their intentions without delay to their Commanders of the land and naval forces of the Allied Powers. They may be confident of a safe conduct to whatever place they may be desirous to proceed, and they shall receive passports to protect them on their voyage from the squadron and cruizers of the Allied Powers. Let them hasten to take advantage of the benignant dispositions of the Sublime Porte, and let them consider it as a propitious occasion for extricating themselves from the horrible gulph into which they have been precipitated!"

Ancona is said to be taken by the Russians and Turks.

Insurrections have broken out in various parts of Switzerland, the people of several districts have cut down the tree of liberty, refused to obey the decrees for enrolling themselves in the militia, and driven away the public functionaries.

The Archduke Charles is making preparations to advance into Switzerland, and has issued a proclamation to the Switzers. He has been joined by General Zstaray.

La Prudente, French sloop of war, and the Goliah, transport ship have been taken by a British frigate. La Prudente had 20 men killed, and 25 wounded. They were bound to Ireland, with cargoes of muskets, powder, shells and grenadoes.

THE LAUNCH.

More of the Wooden Walls of Columbia.

Yesterday at 35 minutes and 4 seconds past five P. M. the United States ship CONNECTICUT, was safely deposited in the bosom of the majestic stream whence she derives her name. No words can convey an adequate idea of the beauty and brilliancy of the scene. Nature, as if inclined to do honor to the occasion, has furnished one of the most delightful days that the vernal season ever witnessed—while Old father Connecticut, eager to receive his beautiful offspring, had swollen his waters by the liquefaction of snows reserved for the occasion near his source, in order to facilitate her passage to his wave; and extending his liquid arms, welcomed her to his embrace. Flora, decked in her richest attire, smiled gleeful around, and a brilliant concourse of spectators from this and the neighbouring towns, whose countenance expressed the liveliest sensibility, at thus witnessing the progress of our nautical armament, destined to protect our commerce, and burl the thunders of Columbia on her shrinking foes, formed a most magnificent moving picture, in addition to the brilliancy of nature which shone around. The preparation for the launch was exquisite, and evincive of the consummate skill of the architect who superintended the operations of the day, and whose orders were given with dignity and obeyed with punctilious nicety. When the moment arrived at which the elegant fabric was to leave her earthly bed, never more to return, the anxiety of the crowd was witnessed by a solemn silence, awful and profound. The stroke was struck, the blocks were removed; when lo! with the grace and majesty of the divine Cleopatra, on the wonder-struck Cydnus, she glided into the arms of her Parent River, and as if reposing herself to sleep upon a bed of roses, sunk upon his breast. In a moment the peal of Federalism burst forth, the pœans of the gazing thousands met the heavens, and the echo faintly expired on the distant hills.

While shad and salmon feel the patriot glow,
And throng in numerous shoals the watry way,
And sturdy sturgeon from the depths below,
Leap up, her matchless beauties to survey.

☞ The above Bostonian paragraph translated into the vernacular rongue, reads thus—The United States ship Connecticut, of 32 guns, which is to be commanded by Capt. Moses Tryon, was yesterday in the afternoon, safely launched from the ship-yard at Chatham, into Connecticut River.]

NEW-YORK, June 11.

Loss of the ship Speedwell.

The fate of this ship is peculiarly distressing; the particulars of which we are enabled to state as given us by the crew, which arrived here yesterday in the sloop Union, Chadwick, of Shrewsbury, who humanely took them off the wreck at a time when two other vessels refused to do it, though solicited by a part of the crew that had rowed off for the purpose of imploring relief from passing vessels.

The Speedwell was commanded by Capt. Howland—was from Faulkland's Islands, richly laden with 15,000 hair seal skins and 420 barrels of oil, valued at 40,000 dollars—the half of which was to go to the owners, and the other half was to have been divided among the crew, 25 in number, who, after a two years voyage of hard fatigue, are by this wreck, deprived of their all.

The Speedwell had a pilot on board, and was under easy sail on Saturday last, about 1 o'clock P. M. when she went on the West Bank, near the Light House. At 5 o'clock, at which time the crew were taken off, she was a complete wreck, and nothing but her ribs seen above water.

The crew returned last evening, with an intention of trying to save some of the cargo.

We are informed by the hands, that while the Speedwell lay off the coast where they were getting the skins, she was driven out by a gale with only part of her crew on board, and was gone from the other part 21 days, during which time they were obliged to subsist on the unseasoned flesh of the seals without bread—their sufferings here were very great—their food operated continually as a cathartic, their teeth became quite loose and they so much reduced that they were unable to work.

Loss of the ship Ontario.

Capt, Dennis, of the Rhode-Island packet, Fame, arrived yesterday afternoon from Newport, informs us, that he sailed from that place on Saturday last, at 10 o'clock, A. M. that, at 11, within 5 miles of Newport, he fell in with, and spoke the ship Semiramis, capt. Jacob Smith, from Canton to Newport, who informed him that the ship Ontario, capt. Wheaton, owned by Messrs. Franklin's of this port, was lost, on or near the Cape of Good Hope, and that the Supercargo, and some of the crew were on board the Semiramis.

N. B. The wind blowing fresh, and both vessels passing each other briskly, could learn no more particulars, but that the crew were all saved.

BALTIMORE, June 8.

Every account from the Havanna proves the correctness of the intelligence we published some time ago, respecting the mortality of the yellow fever at that place; and the guardians of our health, we doubt not, have and will exert all their vigilance in preserving this city from its baleful ravages.

The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 12.

THE DEMOCRATIC JUDGE.

IT can be well attested, that a certain would-be great man, not a mile from this city, on its being mentioned to him, that the President's house ought to be sold, replied in the following terms: "Sell it—no—the State ought not to sell it but they should keep it for the Governor and give him a salary adequate to the support of it."

O! Rara Tempora!

In that diurnal diablerie which under the name of the Aurora, is, for I know not what reason, still permitted to outrage every moral principle, and the excesses of which have been such as to shock, I do not suppose the delicacy, but the policy even of M'Kean and his son Joe, the former of whom actually took the pains to go to the house of Mr. Wharton, to advise him to prosecute the beastly vagabond who conducts it, and the latter of whom beat him with his fist; appeared on Monday, the following falsehoods:

AURORA, Monday June 10th,'99.

"On the day of payment of the first instalment the Scrip (of the New Loan) was sold by some of the speculators at a profit of 40 per cent—In other words 140 dollars were given for the right to receive a share of the nominal value of 100 dollars bearing 8 per cent interest.

"In a few days the paper of that stock was offered at a discount of 15 per cent, and no purchasers to be found."

The Editor of the Vergennes Gazette observes, that "War almost without an exception, has been the issue of negociation with the Revolutionary Directory." The reason is obvious—Either negociation has been resorted to by France, in order to gain time for tampering with the people, whose official agents, she has thus amused with debates, and to throw them off their guard against her wiles; or, in the course of those negociations, she has displayed an arrogance inconsistent with their sovereignty, by demanding of them to disgrace their Chief Magistrates for attempting to excite a spirit of vigilance against their designs, or requiring payment of tribute. Justice demands the disgraceful confession, that in some instances war has not resulted even from these extremities.

MR. FENNO,

I am so unfortunate as to be troubled with a neighbor whose brain has recently become "decomposed" (if I may thus apply one of his own terms) by continual endeavors to prove that our country is by nature liable to generate the plague, yellow fever, &c. &c. In fact if you may believe him we cannot count on the existence of any one of our American cities for twelve months to come. Add to this, he is continually boring my family with his phlogiston, miasmata, dephlogiticated aerial fluids, his oxygene and his gaz, by all which he has frequently frightened my poor wife into fits, and strong desires that I should fly for refuge to Europe from this once healthful but now detestable clime. Would to Heaven this was all the mischief; but he persuaded me, fool as I was, to send one of his theoretical essays to Europe to my correspondent, which I enclosed with my customary orders for goods. Judge of my astonishment at the consequences, when instead of the goods, I expected, my friend after thanking me for the essay, says that as our country is now given up to an habitual pestilence, originating and liable constantly to continue with us, he could not think of trusting his property where life was so precarious, and where plunder or theft might be the consequence of my death by the dreadful contagion: further my friend desired me not to purchase either the lands or the public stocks which he had ordered, for that he had altered his mind respecting a removal to America and after thanking God for his timely escape from this intended removal, he advises me "to flee from the wrath to come:" for he now believes that for our attachment to French political sins and to our irreligious propensities, we are to be driven by pestilence from that country which he once thought the land of promise. He further adds that all his friends are equally alarmed and will discontinue all commercial connection with America if my communication should be confirmed by further information. I have offered thus much for the amusement of our new theorists, and have only to request that you will publish what I have communicated and then let me ask these wanton speculatists how they intend to satisfy the numerous claims for damages sustained through their folly.

MERCATOR.

From a Kingston (Jam.) Paper of Feb. 16.

On Tuesday last, at the quarter sessions for this parish, M. de Bruges was fined in the sum of One Hundred Pounds, for having suffered a negro child to be flogged most cruelly; and Eugene Chereste, for having caused this punishment to be inflicted in a manner disgraceful to humanity, was fined in the sum of fifty pounds, and six months imprisonment, in the common goal:—The latter part of her punishment was afterwards remitted (on representation of her being far advanced in pregnancy) upon condition of giving security to keep the peace for 6 months and freedom to the girl who had been punished.

At the same time John Sproule, a white man, was found guilty of barbarously beating a negro woman, his property. The charge against him exhibited such proofs of inhumanity, that the court, to shew their abhorrence of such proceedings, sentenced him to pay a fine of one hundred pounds, and to be imprisoned until the sentence is complied with.

TERMS

Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

FROM THE COMMENCEMENT

Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound but, as the publisher does not intend to print many more than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in these rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress, will, in their wisdom, render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves
